FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Congratulations and well done to our P4 pupils who made their First Holy Communion on Saturday 13th May. They all looked beautiful and performed excellently during the Mass. Thank-you to Mrs Hughes who prepared the children for the sacrament and to all the staff who assisted with getting the church and school ready for the special day.

Also, thank-you to Fr. Thomas and Fr. Hughes for their support during the preparation with their regular visits to the P4 children.

Thank-you to the school choir who provided the beautiful music and singing which made it a very special Mass!

Finally, thank-you to the P.S.G. for organising the light refreshments in the school!

They all played brilliantly beating some fantastic opposition. A special mention to Donal Devlin who was presented with 'Player of the Tournament!' (pictures on the website)
